

MORONI OLSEN TO GO ON CHAUTAUQUA CIRCUIT

Tomorrow will be "senior day" at the Ogden High school, and as a special feature of the day, Professor Moroni Olsen, instructor in public speaking and elocution at the school during the past year, will give a recital of an hour's duration, commencing at 9 o'clock. This will mark the farewell appearance of the gifted local reader at the school, as he leaves in the near future to take up work on the professional platform, having recently accepted a position with one of the large Chautauqua bureaus of the country. He will be heard at several large assemblies during the summer, and next winter will devote his time to lyceum work.

In speaking of Mr. Olsen yesterday, Superintendent J. M. Mills said: "Although we regret to have Mr. Olsen leave the school faculty, we all realize that it is for his own best interests and that he is climbing to a higher position in entering Chautauqua and lyceum work. He has done wonders at the high school, for he is not only a great reader, but also a good instructor and a willing worker. There is never a task too hard for him, and he has won the highest regard that can be held for any fellow teacher among the members of the faculty, and the respect and admiration of every student."

An invitation has been extended to the public by Principal J. E. Beeson to attend the recital to be given by Professor Olsen, and also to be present at the other exercises of the day and evening. Beginning at 10 o'clock, the senior class will present their closing assembly program, and this will close with the planting of an ivy at the east end of the high school building.

In the evening, the annual senior class show will be presented, under the direction of Professor Olsen. For this event, the Greek drama, "Pygmalion and Galatea," has been chosen, and the cast of characters will be as follows:

Pygmalion.....George Beck
Leucippe.....Harold Kay
Chrysothos.....John Lockhead
Agamemnon.....F. Zimmerman
Galatea.....Violet Hall
Clytemnestra.....Dorothy McGaw
Myrtilis.....Bessie Peterson
Daphne.....Elean Conch

The play will be presented on the new high school stage, and it is expected that the players will be greeted by a capacity audience.

GOOD GAME PLAYED BY THE LEAGUE TEAMS

Standing of the Teams.

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Peery-Kniskely	5	1	.915
Never-Rips	4	1	.800
Eagles	3	2	.600
Walk-Over	3	2	.429
Gauchos	2	4	.333
Mail Clerks	1	4	.200

The Mail Clerks and Walk-Over baseball teams of the City league proved conclusively in a game last evening at Glenwood that, when working behind good pitchers, they can put up as good a brand of amateur baseball as any teams in the city. Last evening's contest was originally scheduled for Friday night of this week, but the date was changed to meet the convenience of the Mail Clerks. It ended with the score at 5 to 2, in favor of the Walk-Overs. The result, however, was just a streak of baseball luck, when, after four innings of "big league" ball, with the score 2 to 1 in favor of the Clerks, and with two men down in the fifth, Reardon got a hit, Williams was given a life, a double steal was successful, "Cap" Livingston passed one of Potter's curves, Reardon tied the score, Potter "blew up," and before the third man "hit the dust," the Walk-Overs had four runs across.

With the exception of the final inning, Potter pitched a fine game, allowing only three hits in four innings and registering a two-bagger, two putouts, two strikeouts and three assists. Yearley, recently signed by Manager Fleishmann of the Walk-Overs to replace Newey, pitched A. 1. ball all the way, allowing only four hits and one pass, and registering six strikeouts. The Walk-Overs went through the contest without an error, and, while four were recorded against the Mail Clerks, three of them were clearly excusable on account of the late afternoon sun striking strongly over second base. Vandy Layman started with the stick, getting three hits out of three times up, and both Falch and Reardon did perfect work at first base, the former accepting six chances in three innings and the latter eight chances in five innings. The lineup follows:

Paintersc	Livingston
Yearleyp	Potter
Reardon1b	Brickley, Falch
Layman2b	Saxe, Brickley
Armanko3b	Smurthwaite
Checkettsss	Parry
Williamslf	Thacker
Titecf	Herrick
F. Furnessrf	Mouritsen

TOMORROW: Commencement of the Yearly SALE OF EMBROIDERIES

The thousands of yards of handsome embroideries which have been on display in our windows during the past week will be offered to customers of this store beginning tomorrow morning. The prices in most all cases are to be about one-half of the usual values. In the assortments will be found all of the new lace effects, the wide flouncings for dresses and waists as well as a full assortment of the narrower embroideries for ordinary use. In many cases the insertions to match the edgings are offered. Selling begins with the opening of the store tomorrow morning.

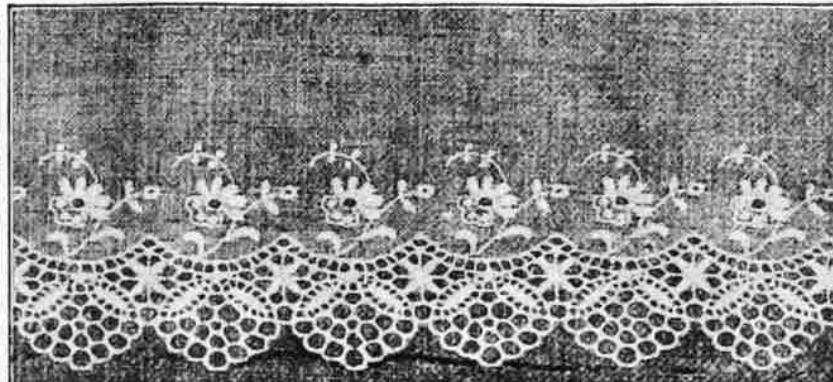

Fairy Flouncings For Girls' Dresses . 1.39

These Fairy Flouncings simplify the making of dresses for the smaller girls. A single yard of the flouncing will complete the entire dress. The pleated flounce is about nine inches wide and is headed with a wide heading for ribbon. With each dress pattern we give a free paper pattern which gives instructions for making. These are real $2.50 values, on sale at $1.39.

30c Embroideries at . . 14c

Extra fine Swiss and Organdie Embroideries with lace edges of firm embroidered edges. These are 5 inches wide. The picture here shows but one of the many attractive edges to be had at this price. All are attractive 30c values on sale tomorrow at 14c.

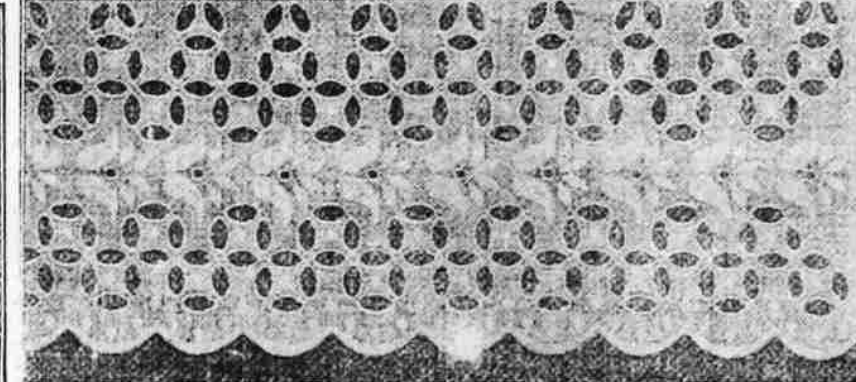

35c Embroideries at . . 19c

This picture shows but one of the many patterns to be found in this lot at 19c. These are of fine Swiss body, 4 and 5 inches wide, with dainty lace edges of attractive scalloped designs. A fine assortment of fresh 35c values at 19c.

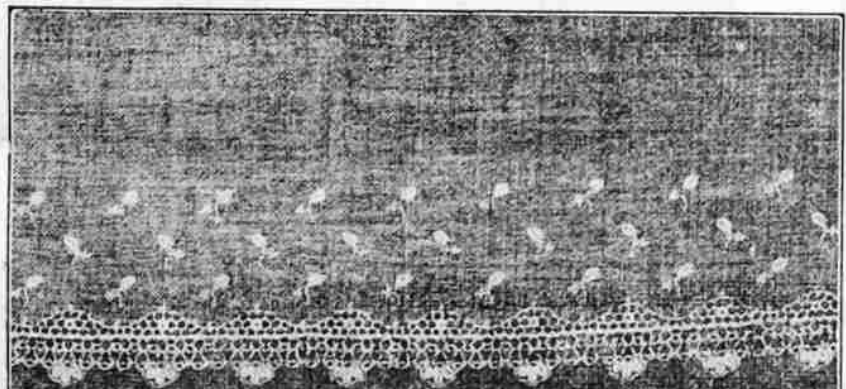

25c Embroideries at . . 12c

Dainty Swiss Embroideries with a very attractive lace edge—4 inches wide. Insertions of the same attractive patterns may be had at the same price of 12c. These are all good values. The picture merely shows the edge of one of the patterns offered.

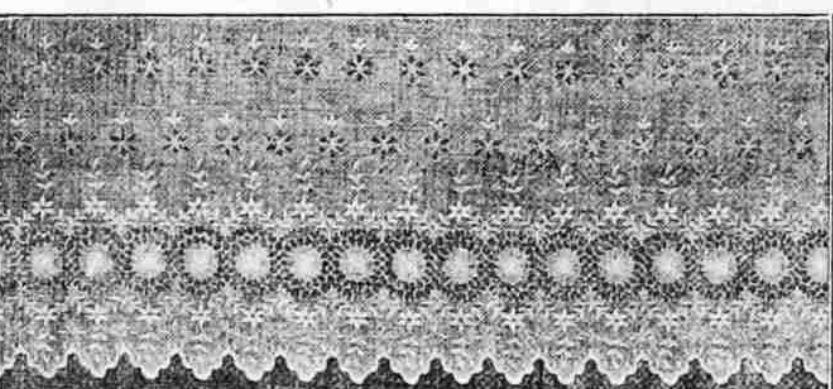

45c Embroideries at . . 23c

This illustration is but one of the attractive edges to be found in this lot of embroideries which are from 4 to 9 inches wide. These are of a Swiss or organdie body with fine ruffled edgings. Corset cover embroideries of Swiss or nainsook will also be found in this assortment at 23c.

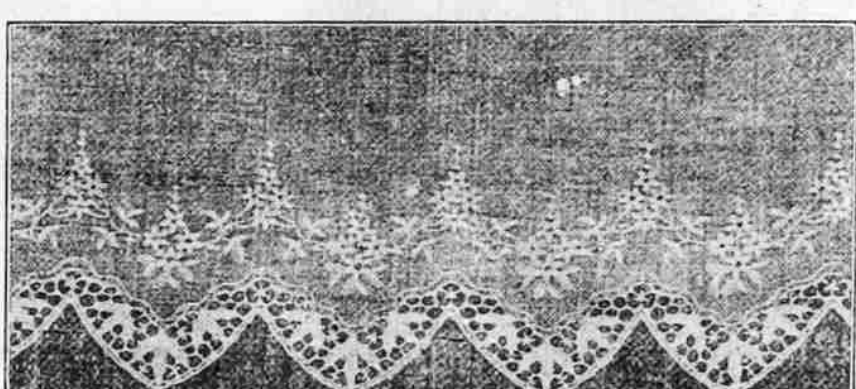

60c Embroideries at . . 32c

Just one of the attractive edges of the embroideries in this lot is illustrated. Many others equally handsome are included. These are of a fine Swiss body with a dainty lace edge in round or pointed scallops. These are from 10 to 18 inches wide and are worth to 60c. Sale price 32c.

$1 Embroideries at . . 48c

This is one of the most attractive lots of the entire offering. These are flouncings in the 27-inch width—flouncings for dresses, etc.—in eyelet or lace edges. Just one of the many patterns in the assortment is shown here. $1 values, 48c.

1.50 Embroideries . . . 59c

This is but one of the many handsome patterns of the $1.50 embroideries to be sold at 59c. These are of a fine Swiss body with pointed scalloped edges or a heavy 9-inch edge—very handsome—and 18 inches wide. $1.50 values will be sold at 59c.

1.75 Embroideries at . . 73c

Here's one of the baby flouncings which will be sold at 73c. These are especially adapted for infants' dresses. They are 27 inches wide in fine baby patterns—some have a set on embroidered flounce of embroidery 4 inches wide. On sale, 73c.

$2 Embroideries at . . 98c

This is just one of a wonderful lot of flouncings which are to be sold at 98c. These are 36 inches wide—patterns for dresses—scalloped edges. You may buy also the 18-inch flouncings of the same pattern at 53c. These 36-inch flouncings are $2 values for 98c.

2.50 Embroideries at . . 1.09

This is one of the 27-inch Voile flouncings at $1.09 and you'll agree that they are exceptional values. While the flouncing is 27 inches wide, the embroidered edge is about 9 inches. White with scalloped edges. Narrow flouncings of the same patterns if you want them, $1.09.

matched, both being composed of exceptionally fast amateur players. Coach Romney's lineup as announced last evening was as follows: Parry and Collins, pitchers; Dee and Fox, catchers; Fuller, first base; Marshall, second base; J. Falch, third base; Stanger, shortstop; Allison and Musgrave, left field; Shaw, right field, and L. Falch, center field.

NO DIFFERENCE.

A darkey running a ferry across a Southern river was accosted by a poor white stranger who wanted to cross, but hadn't the wherewithal. Pete scratched his woolly poll, perplexedly, then queried: "Doan' yo' got no money at all?" "No," was the dejected reply. "But it doan' cost you but three cents ter cross," insisted Pete. "I know, but I hain't got three cents."

After a final inward think, Pete remarked: "I done tell yo' what; a man what ain't got three cents am jes' as well off on dis side ob de river as on de odder!"—National Monthly.

BETTER THAN NONE.

One day, while Willie and Harry were playing in a field they disturbed a bumble-bee's nest, and began running, with the bees after them. When they had run for a few yards, Harry breathlessly panted, "Willie, we ought to pray while we are running!"

To which Willie replied: "I know it, but I can't think of but one prayer."

And Willie, thus admonished, called out between gasps: "Oh, Lord, for what we are about to receive, make us truly thankful!"—National Monthly.
